Josephine Scarfone

Josephine Scarfone started her career in 1986 as an apprentice in hairdressing. During her years as a hairdresser she develop an interest for building nails and waxing and so she started servicing clients in beauty. About ten years later she realized that she needs formal qualification and so she enrolled in Certificate III in Beauty Services at Victoria University. Since then her achievements have become numerous and constantly of the highest quality.

In 2000 she graduated at Victoria University in beauty services. In 2003 Josephine added Diploma of Beauty Therapy to Hairdressing and Beauty Services. In the same year she graduated at Victoria University achieving a graduate Diploma of Vocational Educational Training.

2003 and 2004 were great years for Josephine: she was employed as nail educator at INBCA in Richmond, when Mr. Dung Le called her to the role of Educator Manager at the same Institute. The long lasting relationship between Dung Le and Trang Nguyen, 5 time nails world champion, allowed Josephine to train with Trang and obtaining a Master Educator Certificate.

At the end of 2004 Josephine and Dung Le opened Melbourne Institute of Nails & Beauty which soon after has been recognized as the finest academy for nails in Melbourne.

2008 saw Josephine going back to hairdressing while continuing teaching at Melbourne Institute of Nails & Beauty. In fact she opened Odyssey Nails Hair & Beauty in Harbour Town Docklands.

Finally in 2010 Josephine acquired Nails r Us. The Nails r Us clientele can now benefit of the expertise, experience and dedication of one of the best nail technician and beautician in Australia.
